

Professional summary

Dr. Anna Nikina-Ruohonen

Author: "Areas of Innovation in a Global World".

Affiliated Professor, Grenoble Ecole de Management, France.

Partnerships Executive, Cyprus International Institute of Management, Cyprus.

Ambassador, Educational Innovations, HundrED Finland.

Mentor for Youth, Mentors of Finland.

Over 15 years of professional experience across Europe and globally in the development of international partnerships and communications in business, education and innovation ecosystems.

Dr. Nikina-Ruohonen has collaborated with International Association of Science Parks and Areas of Innovation, Skolkovo Innovation Center, Nokia, Finnish-Russian Chamber of Commerce, leading management consulting company Trainers' House and Haaga-Helia University of Applied Sciences.

Published scholar, trainer and educator in innovation management, entrepreneurship and female entrepreneurship.

Doctoral Dissertation is on women entrepreneurs in Scandinavia. Received an award by United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship for practical contribution to entrepreneurship.

March 2019